We'll all need legal help at some point in our lives – whether it's when we are buying a home, planning for the future, caring for aging parents or handling financial matters like debt collection or identity theft.

With the Legal Plan, you get assistance for many common legal matters, as well as the flexibility to handle them as you choose. You can choose an attorney or conduct some matters from the comfort of your home, including estate planning, and new this year – online tax preparation.

New for 2022 –Tax preparation benefits from your Legal Plan

The Legal Plan provides you with access to online tax preparation and filing¹ at no additional cost to you. With this new offer, you can complete your federal & state taxes online. Learn more by visiting legalplans.com.

Using the plan is easy

It's like having an attorney on retainer. You just find an attorney in our network and call to make an appointment. All attorney fees are covered as long as the matter is covered under your plan and there are no copays, deductibles or claims forms.²

Enrollment period³ July 6th to July 16th
